Congratulations!

On behalf of The Institute of Internal Auditors, it is my privilege to present IIA–Panama with the 2014 Building Awareness Champion award. This inaugural award recognizes your institute’s commitment to advancing the internal audit profession by implementing and taking part in this year’s outstanding advocacy initiatives.

As advocates for the profession, you play an important role in building awareness of the value that an independent internal audit function brings to good governance, risk management, and internal control.

By participating in International Internal Audit Awareness Month and sharing this message throughout May, you demonstrated your passion for the profession and took part in a growing global movement to raise the profile of internal auditing and strengthen others’ understanding of what we do as practitioners.

Please accept the attached award, which I hope you will display proudly on your institute’s website.

Remember, though we may speak the loudest during the month of May, advocacy is truly a year-round effort. Keep up the great work!

Best regards,
